

CLIENT: Camp Katur
SOURCE: Woman's Own
DATE: 27th April
CIRCULATION: 220,485
REACH: 881,940
AD VALUE: £9,542.17
PR VALUE: £38,168.68

Woman's Own

OR WHY NOT TRY.

Medieval glamping at Warwick Castle

WHY WE LOVE IT While medieval camping may sound rather primitive, at Warwick Castle you can recreate the days of yore in the lap of luxury! Set in 44 acres of landscaped gardens, each tent boasts a double bed, two single beds and faux fur throws to keep you cosy. A breakfast fit for a king, priority entrance to the castle and medieval evening entertainment are also included in the price. HOW MUCH? £200 per a tent per a night – visit warwick-castle.com.

idyllic location, while enjoying the comforts of underfloor heating, hot showers and a private decked area with gas barbeque. Pods sleep two adults and two children (under 16) and luxury facilities include a private bathroom too.

HOW MUCH? From £69 per night or £207 for a three-day short break – visit atlanticsurfpods.co.uk.

Camp Katur, Kirklington, Yorkshire

WHY WE LOVE IT

Lots of Choice

There's a whole village of themed glamping options, from the cute and cosy Teepee to the spacious Safari Tent. All guests can use a communal kitchen hut, where there are gas cookers, kettles and hot running water, and you can rustle up some tasty grub as you meet fellow campers.

HOW MUCH? From £20 per night for a 'hobbit pod' (above, sleeps two adults and two children) – visit campkatur.com.

Atlantic surf pods, Bude, Cornwall

Extra luxury features

WHY WE LOVE IT This family-run site offers a great base for exploring the beautiful beaches of the north Cornwall coast, as well as nearby Tintagel Castle and RHS Garden Rosemoor. Find some peace and quiet in this