Our mini guide to camping

Camping, glamping and caravanning is the way to holiday this year. We provide a mini guide to pitching up in the UK and abroad...

Soggy sleeping bags and tinned beans for dinner – just two of the things people typically associate with a ‘camping’ holiday – but things have changed.

Camping, or ‘glamping’ as some holiday makers have coined it, is becoming more popular each year. With campsites dotted around the UK and abroad boasting superior tents, luxury amenities

Glamping in Yorkshire

Camp Katur is what you call glamping in style! Based in the beautiful 250 acre Camp Hill Manor Estate in North Yorkshire, the camp offers fun, relaxation and adventure.

They offer a wide range of unique types of accommodation ranging from safari tents, tipis, bell tents, hobbit pods and unidomes. Activities and adventures are provided for all types of visitors including segway treks, clay pigeon shooting, archery, wine tasting and burlesque workshops.

There is also a number of pubs and shops near to the base, as well as golf courses, museums and farms. There are toilet and shower blocks available and a communal kitchen – so if making a fire and showering in the wild is a little extreme for you this is a great place to dip your toes into the camping holiday.
