Glamping village branches into the corporate market

Camp Katur, a woodland glamping village set within 250 acres of scenic North Yorkshire countryside, adjacent to the picturesque village of Bedale, has launched a corporate package for professionals looking to get back to nature and bond with their colleagues around the campfire.

Set on the Camp Hill Estate, which offers a range of team building programmes, including activities such as team building exercises, quad biking and 'blindfold' driving; Camp Katur's choice of hobbit pods, bell tents, tipis, safari tents and geodomes, are ideal for executives looking to reconnect with nature and their team mates.

With a rustic barn providing catering and entertainment, including a bar, a mezzanine chill out area and outdoor fire pits for campfire gatherings outside; Camp Katur offers the perfect antidote to the stresses of an office environment.

Camp Katur owner, Kerry Roy said: "The team building activities are designed to re-energize and re-invigorate busy professionals, and the adventure of staying overnight in the great outdoors also helps us our guests leave their stresses behind. The two components are a great fit and we are experiencing growing demand from the corporate market for our glamping experience."

Camphill Estate runs team building programmes for parties ranging from 10 – 1000 delegates and the glamping village accommodation prices start from £25 per person per night.
